There is no cost or fee to participate but in order to insure that adequate space is provided reservations are required along with a general inventory of what you will be selling. This year we will be assigning a specific location for vendors. Vendors will be positioned on the launch field based on number of days of participation and by the date of the application.

To place your reservation, send us an email with your name, contact phone number, and list of items for sale. We will provide you with updates as Balloon Fiesta approaches.
